2022 ANNUAL REPORT

WILL COLEMAN AND OFF THE RECORD

From the President

Dear Friends,

What strikes me as I reflect on 2022 is the progress and fortitude of our U.S. equestrian teams. Uncharacteristically, due to COVID-19, the Fédération Équestre Internationale (FEI) World Championships took place on the heels of the rescheduled 2020 Olympic and Paralympic Games. This required our athletes and horses to remain in peak condition for nearly back-to-back international championships.

This abbreviated timeline didn't faze our eventing and para dressage programs, both of which have made great strides in recent years. Notably, the podium finishes — the Land Rover U.S. Eventing Team's silver medal at the FEI World Eventing Championships in Pratoni del Vivaro, Italy, and the Adequan® U.S. Para Dressage Team's bronze medal at the Orifarm Healthcare FEI World Para Dressage Championships in Herning, Denmark — are nothing short of impressive. These teams' successes are not only the culmination of years of unwavering dedication and training, but also a reflection of our US Equestrian (USEF) High Performance Pathway Programs in action. Thanks to grants, training programs, and overseas team competitions that are supported by the USET Foundation, our athletes and horses gained the experiences needed to excel on the greatest international stages.

For riders progressing along the dressage and jumping High Performance Pathways, 2022 was a critical year. Both disciplines had a strong start in Wellington, Florida, with the Dutta Corp. U.S. Dressage Team, composed of up-and-coming athletes, taking second place in the FEI Dressage Nations Cup™ USA CDI03* and, similarly, the NetJets U.S. Jumping Team, with athletes all under the age of 25, finishing third out of 11 nations in the FEI Jumping Nations Cup Wellington CSI04*. Several Nations Cup outings and European tours also provided younger athletes with integral learning experiences that will prepare them for larger international competitions.

In non-Olympic disciplines, we celebrated brilliant performances. Vaulting athlete Kimberly Palmer had a third-place podium finish at the 2022 FEI Vaulting World Cup Women's Individual Final in Leipzig, Germany, and Jacob Arnold was the wire-to-wire leader in the FEI Advanced Pair Horse division at the 2022 Live Oak International CAI in Ocala, Florida.

In the next six years, our athletes, horses, and the teams supporting them, will be operating in high gear. Our senior jumping athletes are dedicated to qualifying for the 2024 Olympic and Paralympic Games in Paris, France, while senior athletes in dressage, eventing, and para dressage are also in the midst of training for the Games. At the same time, our developing athletes have their sights set on the 2028 Olympic and Paralympic Games in Los Angeles, California. Though we have Paris in clear focus, we cannot lose sight of the preparation that needs to be happen in order to usher in the next generation of elite athletes at forthcoming championships.

I'm enthusiastic about the depth of talent across all disciplines and it goes without saying that the U.S. equestrian teams' successes would not be possible without the generosity of our supporters and donors. Thanks to you, we're able to deliver on our goals of continued U.S. equestrian excellence and earning podium finishes at the most revered competitions in the world.

I wholeheartedly believe our teams have what it takes to sustain international greatness and I look forward to joining you in cheering them on in 2023 and beyond.

Sincerely,

W. James McNerney, Jr.
Chairman, President, and CEO

“My fondest memory of the Paralympic Games was the ultimate feeling of inclusion and acceptance. Being a disabled person, your disability is often front and center and it is a defining part/descriptor of who you are and how you interact with the world. It doesn't have to be a bad thing, but it can make you feel vulnerable or overly visible. When I went to the Paralympic Games, for the first time in my life my disability wasn't the thing that defined me first... because literally everyone there had one, so all of a sudden that disability became a moot point. What became a much more important part of me was what country I was representing and what sport I was playing. It was a wildly freeing moment in my life that I wasn't expecting and I will forever remember. ”

“Success in eventing is often at the end of a very long and challenging road. For every great experience, there are many disappointing and formative moments. You go through these ups and downs many times and at many different levels throughout your career. It is thanks to the support from organizations like the USET Foundation, and from your owners and sponsors, that you can continue to climb the ladder and reach your fullest potential. Hopefully that is at an event like CHIO Aachen or the FEI World Championships, but wherever you have success on an international level, the USET Foundation certainly helps you to get there.”

Will Coleman

Will Coleman began riding at a young age and trained under U.S. eventing greats including Olympians Karen and David O'Connor. An athlete on USEF's High Performance Training List since the age of 18, notable career accolades include representing the U.S. at the 2012 Olympic Games and the 2018 FEI World Equestrian Games. He has also tallied wins at the 2018 Great Meadow International CCI04*-S, the 2019 Jersey Fresh International CCI4*-S, and the 2021 Carolina International CCI4*-S.

In 2021, Coleman made history as the first American to win the CCI04*-S at CHIO Aachen. In 2022, he was part of the Land Rover U.S. Eventing Team that claimed the silver medal at the FEI Eventing World Championship helping the U.S. qualify for the upcoming 2024 Olympic Games in Paris, France.

LIONEL GUERRAND-HERMÈS TROPHY

Christian Simonson

Christian Simonson began preparing for international competition at a young age. At the North American Youth Championships (NAYC), he won team gold in 2016 and individual silver in 2016 and 2017. He also earned the USDF Bronze and Silver medals in 2017.

In 2021, he won triple gold at NAYC and was also selected to represent the U.S. at the Future Champions Nations Cup in Hagen, Germany, where the team took home bronze. In 2022, Simonson had a third-place podium finish in the Grand Prix Freestyle Young Rider division at CHIO Aachen. R. BRUCE DUCHOSSOIS DISTINGUISHED TRUSTEE AWARD

Margaret H. Duprey

Margaret H. Duprey is a lifelong member of the equestrian community and has served on the United States Equestrian Team (USET) Foundation's Board of Trustees for more than 15 years, playing an integral role in supporting and donating to several fundraising campaigns.

Most recently, she spearheaded the "Trustee and National Advisory Committee (NAC) Challenge," in which she would make a gift commitment of $1 million to the USET Foundation's Pathway to the Podium (PTTP) Campaign if $2 million was raised from Trustees and NAC members before the end of 2022. Duprey's leadership with the Trustee and NAC Challenge inspired members to exceed the goal.

Along with her husband Robert (Bob), Duprey owns and operates Cherry Knoll Farm Inc., which is home to high-performance dressage and jumping horses that represent the U.S. in international competition.

Notably, Duprey has owned several mounts for Olympic show jumping gold medalist Laura Kraut and international dressage athlete Todd Flettrich. With Duprey's Otto, Flettrich was named alternate to the U.S. dressage team for the 2012 Olympic Games in London, England. Similarly, Duprey is an advocate for para dressage and was part owner of Schroeter's Romani, a mare that represented the U.S. at the 2016 Paralympic Games in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, and at the 2018 FEI World Equestrian Games in Mill Spring, North Carolina, with rider Rebecca Hart.

In addition to her passion for equestrian sport, Duprey is deeply committed to supporting children through education. This is evident in her many ongoing contributions with numerous organizations and her steadfast belief that people can make a positive difference.
